Report of the 2nd Inter-University Basketball Competition and Cheerleading Competition

The 2nd AUAP Inter- University Basketball Competition (IUBC) was hosted by SIAS International University, China from 16-22 Nov 2018. The competition started with an opening speech delivered by Dr. Ronaldo Garcia, member of the Advisory Council, on behalf of Association of Universities of Asia and the Pacific (AUAP), and the AUAP President, Dr. Sunghee Num. He offered unconditional appreciation to Dr. Shawn Chen, the Chairman and Founder of SIAS International University, and the Chairman of AUAP Advisory Council, for making the event a reality. He also thanked SIAS International University for the Provision of state-of-the-art facilities, unquestionable hospitality, and wonderful accommodation for AUAP staff, and all participants.

The fighting spirit of Surabaya University to participate in the competition after the team spent two (2) nights at Singapore Airport and Bangkok Airport because of the typhoon was acknowledged. The participation of the University of Saint Joseph in the competition was deeply appreciated considering that they left Macau soon after the horrible typhoon struck their city.

A total number of 10 teams from 10 universities and 6 countries participated in the competition. The competition commenced with the first match between Zhengzhou University, China and I-Shou University, Taiwan. The match ended 88-86 in favor of Zhengzhou University. After several days of interesting matches among the participating teams, SIAS International University, China and University of Tehran, Iran, played in the Final Round. The match was a close contest, but University of Tehran, Iran emerged as the winner of the competition.

The presentation of Awards was an important part of the closing Ceremony of the 2nd AUAP Basketball Competition, which took place on 22nd September, 2018, at 22:00 pm.
