

The GLOBAL KNOWLEDGE ALLIANCE (GKA), is Cross Boarder initiative based in Australia to provide and promote Skills training and Education, formed in 2010. In addition, GKA is an Australian based Education, Products and Services Innovation organization whose primary focus is on assisting in the development and commercialization of Training, Education, and Products & Services. GKA has several cross-border initiatives in partnership with Universities, Specialised Engineering, Technology and Scientific Groups, Government and R&D organisations. GKA Specialises in Training , Education and Research Innovation, and leading-edge projects. Specifically, the impact of leading edge technologies on society and the role of Higher Educational Institutions and Universities.